With the Easter holidays, May half term and bank holiday weekends falling within the coming months, guests have the perfect excuse to make the most of this lovely time of year by escaping to the countryside. Choices include the Tortworth Court Four Pillars Hotel, a Grade II* listed Victorian mansion set in over 30 acres of parkland that is perfect for a luxury spring break or the contemporary Cotswold Water Park Four Pillars Hotel. Set in the heart of the Cotswold Water Park, this hotel is great for those that love outdoor pursuits and also offers the fantastic Spa 6 with its champagne nail bar and Decléor treatments. Four Pillars Hotels has a further four properties in and around the fascinating city of Oxford, all perfectly placed to explore the city of dreaming spires and beautiful surrounding countryside: the Oxford Spires Four Pillars Hotel which is just a short walk from the centre, the Oxford Thames Four Pillars Hotel set within parkland on the River Thames just three miles from the city and the Oxford Witney Four Pillars Hotel and Oxford Abingdon Four Pillars Hotel, both a short drive away.

Guests can also choose to stay at one of the stylish self-catering apartments at Cotswold Water Park Four Pillars Hotel. Perfect for families, groups and couples, the apartments combine the flexibility of a self-catering holiday with the convenience of the hotel's facilities on site. Prices start from £82.50 per apartment, per night.

A stay with Four Pillars also includes many exclusive discounts at some of the region's varied attractions – everything from historic houses and glorious gardens to water sports and wildlife parks. For instance, guests can gain discounted entry for all the family at the Cotswold Wildlife Park and Bristol Zoo, exclusive rates to visit Blenheim Palace and further VIP discounts at the Bicester Village outlet shopping destination.
