

PUT ALL YOUR EGGS IN ONE BASKET FOR A PERFECT EASTER GETAWAY

UK breaks from £34.50 per person per night with Four Pillars Hotels

26th March 2014: With the first glimpses of spring appearing and the Easter holidays just around the corner, now is the perfect time to escape on a short break. Make the most of the long weekend and school holidays with a stay at a Four Pillars Hotel – a collection of six charming properties in some of the prettiest parts of England. Stays over this period start at just £34.50 per person, per night on a bed and breakfast basis* and children stay and eat breakfast for free**.

Four Pillars Hotels has four properties in and around Oxford to choose from. All are within easy distance of this historic city and also visiting local attractions such as Waterperry Gardens which, throughout April, holds a Big Easter Bunny Hunt with bunnies hidden around the ornamental gardens. There is also plenty of family fun to be had over the Easter weekend at nearby Blenheim Palace – Easter egg hunts, cupcake decorating, traditional fairground rides and also Peppa Pig and Fireman Sam putting in an appearance for the little ones.

There is also the magnificent Grade II listed Victorian mansion Tortworth Court Four Pillars Hotel set in stunning parkland that is beautiful at this time of year. Within easy reach is the exciting city of Bristol which, from 4th – 6th April, will be holding its annual Chocolate Festival. The festival offers a range of indulgent things to do – chocolate tastings, a 'Brownie Trail' to hunt down the best ever chocolate brownie and even a 'Cocoa Spa' featuring luxurious cocoa butter beauty treatments.

Or perhaps choose to stay at the Cotswold Water Park Four Pillars Hotel, a contemporary lakeside hotel that also offers the option to stay in a luxury self-catering apartment. Combining the flexibility of a self-catering holiday with the convenience of the hotel's restaurants, bars and luxury spa on site, the apartments start from £97.50 per apartment, per night based on a two night break in a studio apartment***. And with the hotel's location within the Cotswold Water Park, guests can take part in a host of action-packed activities from windsurfing and sailing to horse riding, fishing and cycling.

So whether it's sightseeing or shopping, fresh country walks or exploring the Cotswolds further afield, there really is something for all ages and tastes to enjoy with an affordable Four Pillars Hotel Easter break.
