

Bargain breaks to Thailand & Cambodia with TruTravels!

05 April 2016 – Specialist tour operator, TruTravels, is offering super savings to Thailand and Cambodia throughout 2016! Fun-loving backpackers and travellers can save £100 on ALL of the company's new '16 Day Thai-Khmer Explorer' group tours departing this year, offering a superb opportunity for explorers to discover the most amazing parts of Cambodia and some of Thailand's biggest gems.

TruTravels is the only operator in the world to run its Thai-Khmer Explorer route and the itinerary is an ideal introduction to Asia. Visiting some of undiscovered Thailand, before island hopping on the Thai and Cambodian islands of Koh Chang and Koh Rong the tour then goes off-the-beaten-track in Cambodia with the chance to uncover the cultural hotspot of Kampot. The tour ends in Siem Reap where travellers can experience the majestic temples of Angkor.

From just £40.60 per day, TruTravellers can combine fun, adventure and sightseeing as they journey along Thailand's west coast and explore the best bits of Cambodia. Highlights include an Undiscovered Thailand boat trip, sailing the open seas, snorkelling and visiting little-visited turtle sanctuary on a private island, plus a kayaking adventure around the beautiful island of Koh Chang. After hopping over to Cambodia, TruTravellers will discover beaches, islands, culture and parties in Sihanoukville and Phnom Penh, stay at an awesome new backpacker resort on the tropical island of Koh Rong, enjoy rafting and tubing in Kampot and take a sunrise tuk tuk ride through the temples of Angkor.

In addition to a huge range of activities, reduced prices for the '16 Day Thai-Khmer Explorer' includes 15 nights' accommodation, all travel within Thailand and Cambodia (taxis, tuk tuks, longtail boats, buses, ferries and private vehicles), guided touring with Western group leaders and English-speaking local guides, some meals such as private beach BBQs, airport pick-up in Bangkok and full support before, during and after the tour, including pre-departure traveller packs, access to a 'Meet Others' Tour Radar App and SOS line, as well as help and guidance for onward travel.

Terms and conditions

Savings of £100 per person are available on every '16 Day Thai-Khmer Explorer' departure in 2016. Valid on all bookings made before 26th November 2016. All bookings should be made directly with TruTravels' UK office. Discount is not valid for existing bookings or in conjunction with any other offer or promotion and is subject to availability.

-Ends-

About TruTravels

Founded in 2012 by two British travellers, TruTravels is a specialist tour operator offering group experiences for backpackers and fun-loving young travellers. The company currently operates 7 tours across some of the most amazing parts of Thailand, Cambodia and Indonesia. Every tour guarantees a fun time for TruTravellers with an emphasis on 'travelling like a local' – being a traveller, not a tourist. A team of local tour guides with Western group leaders use local transportation wherever possible and reveal places that most backpackers and younger travellers don't get to see. TruTravels offers an innovative support service for first-time travellers, including traveller starter packs and an SOS line for those continuing their adventure as a solo traveller, with 24/7 support available at any time during their stay in South East Asia – providing peace of mind for family members. For more information, see www.trutravels.com.

For media information, or if you're interested in a press trip, please contact Sarah Habicht or Cliona Keane at Hume Whitehead on 0845 498 9980 or email sarah@humewhitehead.co.uk / cliona@humewhitehead.co.uk.