

WARM UP IN TENERIFE THIS SUMMER WITH ADRIÁN HOTELES' LATE AVAILABILITY DEALS

Prices start from as little as £64 per person/night at 5* Roca Nivaria Gran Hotel*

18th May 2016 – Families with no summer holidays booked yet are still in time to enjoy a luxury and affordable break in sunny Tenerife with Adrián Hoteles – from as little as £64* per person/night on B&B. The award-winning hotel group still has rooms available during the school summer holidays at family-friendly Roca Nivaria Gran Hotel, located in the upmarket resort of Costa Adeje.

Boasting average temperatures of 24 degrees in summer and an array of activities for children, Tenerife is a safe bet for all the family to make the most of the long school break. Whale and dolphin watching excursions, theme and water parks for all ages, go-karting races and the cable car up to Mount Teide (reaching 3,555 metres high) are just a few of the island's most popular activities for children.

Furthermore, families who decide to holiday at Roca Nivaria Gran Hotel in August will have the chance to join the lively anniversary celebrations of Roni, the hotel's mascot. Turning two this summer, Roni, the pilot whale, is arranging a birthday celebration full of fun and entertainment for the smallest members of the family – water bouncy castles, sport activities, games and a 'mini disco' will be on the cards.
