MACAO'S HOTTEST BARS FOR A DRINK WITH A VIEW

Rooftop lounges, revolving restaurants and stunning vistas across the Pearl River Delta

1st June 2016 – From its world class nightlife and entertainment to its living Portuguese-Chinese culture, Macao is one of Asia’s most exciting and fascinating destinations. While its neighbour Hong Kong is only 40 miles away, Macao can more than hold its own when it comes to out-of-this-world choices for a drink with a view.

From chic rooftop lounges overlooking the glittering skyline to picturesque waterside terraces, this “east-meets-west” pocket of Asia is the perfect place for a relaxing aperitif or night on the town with friends. Here are six great options:

SKY 21 @ AIA Tower

Located on the 21st floor of the AIA Tower, SKY 21 is one of Macao’s most cosmopolitan bars. Along with a restaurant serving modern pan-Asian cuisine, SKY 21 features a chic lounge bar with an alfresco deck offering stunning views of the Macau Tower and Nam Van Lake. After trying the many cocktails and spirits available, head one level up for live music and DJ performances – don’t forget your dancing shoes! www.sky21macau.com

38 Lounge @Altira Macau

Unrivalled views of Macao’s dramatic skyline set the scene at the stylish rooftop 38 Lounge bar. Located on the 38th floor of Altira Macau in Taipa, 38 Lounge features an extensive drinks list on which the finest (and rarest!) champagnes, whiskies and cognacs can be found as well as a menu of light bites. The bar's signature cocktail, the Litchi Martini, is made with blended lychees shaken with their own bar-made vodka – cheers! www.mandarinoriental.com/macau/

The Terrace @ Pousada De São Tiago

Originally a fortress built by the Portuguese in the early 17th century, Pousada de São Tiago is now a charming boutique hotel located next to the famous A-Ma Temple. From its picturesque terrace, you can enjoy lovely views of the Inner Harbour and the Pearl River Delta while sipping a cocktail. For something different, enjoy the hotel's famous afternoon tea, washed down with a glass of champagne, of course! www.saotiago.com.mo

360° Café @Macau Tower

For a unique experience, head to 360° Café, Macao's highest and only 360° revolving restaurant.
