

PALM SPRINGS' LATEST HOTEL OPENINGS CEMENT THE CITY'S REPUTATION AS A LEADER FOR TRENDY POOLSIDE RETREATS

28st June 2016 – As summer days in the UK start to become shorter, the city of Palm Springs is encouraging sun-seeking Brits to check out its growing portfolio of stunning poolside retreats, thanks to its recent hotel additions which have further boosted its enviable repertoire of established on trend poolside hangouts.

With the UK summer already proving to be a washout, Palm Springs boasts over 350 days of sunshine with 5 only inches of rain in a year, so where better to soak up the Hollywood playground glitz and glamour than this sun-drenched desert oasis holiday destination.

The latest addition to the Palm Springs scene is the V Palm Springs, with the new Poolside Elixir Bar & Grill, offering guests the perfect chance to sip cocktails by the brand new pool, with the option to enjoy some food from the Polynesian-inspired menu. The bar's founder and chef, Greg Grossman, recommends trying the bar's two most popular cocktails, 'Cucumber Crush' and 'In Love with the Cacao', as you relax and unwind on a sun lounger by the water!

ARRIVE

ARRIVE is one of Palm Springs' newest hotels, known for its chilled out atmosphere, where guests and Palm Springs' locals relax together around the courtyard pool. With an oversized Jacuzzi, group fire pits with comfy seating, and even Bocce ball, ping pong and a homemade ice cream shop to enjoy, guests seamlessly become part of a quintessentially laid back Californian experience.

Another new prospect in Palm Springs, Monkey Tree Hotel, is a 16-room boutique property tucked away in a private corner of north Palm Springs. One of Palm Springs' beautiful Mid-Century Modern hotels, it celebrates its design through its décor and vibe, and boasts a large pool stocked with oversized floats. Guests can take advantage of the Scandinavian spa when they're not relaxing on the sun beds, with hot and cold plunge pools and a sauna. When not soaking up the sun, they can enjoy breakfast and sangria throughout the day at the hotels vintage lounge, for the ultimate in holiday relaxation.

Korakia Pensione

Once named 'One of the Sexiest Pools in the World' by Travel and Leisure Magazine, this hotel boasts two exceptional salt water swimming pools. The Moroccan pool wows with an infinity edge and roaring fire pits along the side, whilst the Mediterranean pool provides a light and airy experience with whitewashed villas and stone paths. The poolside experience at the Korakia Pensione is enhanced with daybeds, yoga, tea and breakfast all by the water's edge, so guests can unwind completely from the hum drum of the regular nine to five.
