Half Term Holidays in the Heart of London

Hilton London Metropole offers unmissable 'Stay Longer and Save' packages this February

LONDON – 2nd February 2017 – With half term around the corner, Hilton London Metropole is offering a great deal for families wishing to visit the capital for a fun-filled break. The 'Stay Longer and Save' package features an 18% discount off best available rates, based on a minimum three-night stay, while children under ten stay and eat free*. Although it is available in all room types, the hotel's Family Superior Rooms are a perfect half term choice, easily accommodating two adults and up to three children in some of London's largest "double doubles". Per room for a three-night stay in a Superior room for families, prices start from £495.00, including breakfast and taxes*.

Located in the heart of London, just 10-minutes from Oxford Street and the iconic greens of Hyde Park, Hilton London Metropole puts February half term fun on the doorstep for families, with quick, hassle-free connections to a number of popular city attractions. London Zoo, Madame Tussauds and the Sherlock Holmes Museum are all within walking distance. SEA LIFE London Aquarium, the London Dungeon and many other famous attractions are just a short tube or bus ride away, either via Edgware Road underground station, just a two-minute walk from the hotel, or the numerous nearby bus stops.

The hotel's stylish and contemporary Family Superior Rooms are the perfect half term choice, where families can unwind after a busy day and watch one of the children's TV channels or an on-demand movie. Easily accommodating two adults and up to three children, prices start from £495.00, including breakfast and taxes*, in some of London's largest "double doubles."

Days begin with Hilton London Metropole's famous breakfast buffet that features more than 100 hot and cold items, and as each day of discovery and exploration draws to an end, guests can kick-back and choose between a number of inviting dining options. The contemporary Fiamma restaurant serves delicious international cuisine with Mediterranean influences while Herb N' Kitchen – the hotel's popular grab 'n go café – provides guests with flexible, cost-effective options in the form of fresh, healthy and delicious snacks that can be eaten at the hotel or out and about! Families can also enjoy the LivingWell Health Club, complete with a 12.5m heated pool – perfect for the kids – a sauna, steam room and fitness centre.

Looking for a cost-effective, half term escape? Look no further – Hilton London Metropole has it all!
