

AND THE 'BEST CHEF IN THE CANARY ISLANDS' AWARD GOES TO... ADRIÁN HOTELES' CHEF RUBÉN CABRERA!

La Cúpula Restaurant's head chef receives highest accolade by respected gastronomy awards

15th February 2017 – Rubén Cabrera, Head Chef of gourmet restaurant La Cúpula, located within Tenerife's five-star Hotel Jardines de Nivaria, has won the 'Best Chef in the Canary Islands' award at the prestigious ¡Qué Bueno! Canarias Heineken regional gastronomy awards. The Spanish Chef receives the highest distinction due to his constant creativity, innovation and passion for gastronomy excellence, which has made La Cúpula a must-visit restaurant for fine-diners in Tenerife.

The accolade is the latest recognition of Rubén Cabrera's impressive culinary career; as well as being the representative chef for the Canary Islands in last month's Madridfusión Gastronomy Summit, Rubén was awarded 'Best Chef' at Spain's National Gastronomy Contest for the second year in a row in 2016. He was also given the first prize in the International Creative Cuisine Competition "Gamba Roja de Dénia" in 2015.

Rubén Cabrera has been the Head Chef at La Cúpula since 2007. This gourmet restaurant, located on the fourth floor of Hotel Jardines de Nivaria, serves fusion food which mixes French and local Canarian cuisines, carefully prepared by the award-winning Chef and his team. The eatery, which re-opened late 2016 after a full refurbishment, boasts floor-to-ceiling windows and panoramic views over the Atlantic Ocean, making it an ideal spot for visitors to celebrate a special occasion while on their sunny holiday.

Launched in 2010, the ¡Qué Bueno! Canarias Heineken awards recognise the best chefs, cuisines and restaurants in the Canary Islands with ten different award categories – including Best Chef. The latest awards ceremony took place in Golf Las Américas, Tenerife, on Monday 13th February.
