

RESTAURANT WEEK RETURNS TO PALM SPRINGS, JUNE 2017

31st May 2017 – Palm Springs, California's famous desert playground, will welcome food enthusiasts to the city this June as world-renowned and award-winning restaurants showcase their artfully crafted cuisines for Greater Palm Springs Restaurant Week. The 10-day event will run from Friday 2nd to Sunday 11th June, featuring more than 40 participating Palm Springs' restaurants that will offer two or three-course prix fixe lunch and dinner menus for diners to devour.

Not only can customers choose from a great collection of cuisines, but also from a wide array of dining locations. Those who don't like to miss a second of sunshine can dine al fresco under the city's year-round blue skies, or, for a little respite from the desert heat, can choose to pull up a chair in one of the city's designer restaurants.

During the event prices start from $15 for lunch (approx. £12.00) and $29 for dinner (approx. £23) and passes, tickets or coupons are not required. Diners simply choose where they would like to dine and participating restaurateurs will do the rest – it's that easy! In addition to 'Restaurant Week' specials, regular menus will be on offer throughout the event too.

About Palm Springs

One hundred miles east of Los Angeles, Palm Springs is a desert playground with year-round sunshine, blue skies and stunning natural beauty. Nestled beneath California's San Jacinto Mountains, the city is famed for its Hollywood legacy, Native American heritage and huge collection of mid-century modern architecture. The desert oasis boasts a wealth of adventurous hiking trails and historical canyon tours, as well as chic boutiques, world-renowned golf courses and unique experiences, including the chance to stay in the former homes of Marilyn Monroe and Elvis Presley.
