London, 26 February 2018 – Travellers looking to exploit the extra-long Easter weekend, or just escape for some sunshine, will find a host of stylish and affordable NH Collection properties in some of Europe’s top cities. From heavenly chocolate workshops in Brussels to sunshine and culture in Barcelona, NH Hotel Group rounds up its favourite city break destinations to enjoy this Easter.

A weekend of indulgence in Europe’s ‘chocolate capital’

With Belgium producing some of the world’s finest chocolate, Brussels makes an enticing choice for a spot of Easter indulgence. With the smell of chocolate wafting through the streets, visitors will need no encouragement to take a chocolate walking tour or workshop, while those wanting to know more about the history of the sweet treat can do so during a visit to the Belgian Chocolate Village Museum. Where better to celebrate the biggest chocolate extravaganza of the year than Europe’s chocolate capital!

In the heart of the city, just minutes away from Brussels main square, guests will find the elegant and charming NH Collection Brussels Centre. Complete with Art Deco-style façade and original 1920s staircase, the hotel has spacious rooms and suites, a captivating terrace and contemporary-chic Burger Bistrot restaurant, which serves haute cuisine burgers. This premium four-star hotel offers everything needed to relax after a day exploring the Belgian city! Prices start from €130* per night.

Cultural Discoveries in Rome

Easter is one of the most memorable times of the year to visit the Italian capital. As well as the many religious events, this vibrant city is packed with history and art, not to mention great food. No visit to Rome is complete without a visit to the Colosseum, the largest amphitheatre of the Roman Empire, while other unmissable landmarks include the Trevi Fountain, Saint Peter's Basilica and Galleria Borghese. And when the sightseeing is over, it's time to relax over some of Rome's legendary cuisine.

Located in Pizza dei Cinquecento, 5-star NH Collection Roma Palazzo Cinquecento is just minutes from Roma Termini Station, and has a metro, bus and tram stop on its doorstep, making it the perfect base for a Roman city break. Boasting 360-degree city views from the rooftop, as well as a stylish bar, elegant restaurant and its own private garden featuring ancient ruins, the hotel is a charming oasis in which to relax after a day of discovery! Prices start from €259* per night

Taking it easy in Barcelona

Travellers seeking warmer weather, relaxation and culture need look no further than Barcelona. Sampling fine Spanish cuisine at a local restaurant or sitting back and watching the world go by at one of the city's laid-back bars or cafes are the perfect way to take it easy. And no visit to Barcelona would be complete without a visit to some of Gaudi's most famous works, including the breathtaking Sagrada Familia, and the UNESCO-listed Parc Güell. Travellers can even take a three-hour bike tour of the city to discover Gaudi's renowned landmarks.

With an unbeatable location in the Eixample district of Barcelona, NH Collection Barcelona Gran Hotel Calderón is just a five-minute walk from the metro station and a ten-minute walk from Las Ramblas and Passeig de Gracia. After a long day exploring the city, guests at the five-star hotel can head to the hotel's recently refurbished terrace, where they can find spectacular 360-degree views of Barcelona, a refreshing swimming pool, as well as a world class cocktail bar! The hotel also offers guests a taste of fine dining with its El Calderón restaurant that serves delicious Mediterranean cuisine. Prices start from €200* per night.
